This is Western, a university where 7500 students study and work and socialize. And this — the spacious University Student Center — is the hub of campus activity in Kalamazoo.

BROWN & GOLD

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY - - KALAMAZOO, MICHIGAN

As we enter the Student Center, we find students with a purpose . . .
whether it is to grab thot quick cup of coffee and cigarette before class or to catch up on last minute studying or to plan the next all-campus dance.

A year at Western is a multitude of things caught up in the churning memories of a university's inhabitants. Physically, it's a mile-long trek between campuses; socially, it's a world of friendliness; and always, it's a galaxy of features.

A YEAR AT WESTERN

to Modern Lines of New, It's A MILE OF CAMPUS

Columns of learning beckon as we climb the long steps to the Education building on the east campus . . . and windows of learning call us to the administration building on the new campus.

'SORRY, NO MORE room,' smiles Dr. Ralph Miller as we wait for rides at the administration building hitching post.

'WHEREVER YOU are, it's raining all the time.' — At least, that seems true in Kalamazoo.

AND HOW MANY times have we been late far classes, because of the train crassing splitting our campus in twa?

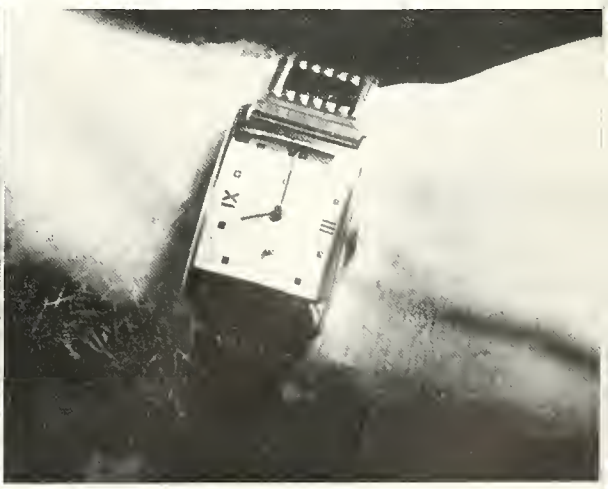

We Wonder as We Wander-- Why Bother with 8:00's?

A mile of campus makes it pretty hard to get to an "8:00" at Western. We spend precious minutes hitching for rides — "Please, won't somebody stap?" — and tumble hesitantly out of bed an rainy days . . . all in quest of that intangible something known as learning. If we're lucky, there's time for a quick cigarette and cup of coffee; if we run into a train, we forfeit them. We walk into class at "zero hour."

THAT HUSTLE AND bustle for 8:00's stared many of us in the faces, including Clem Nicoloff, senior class president.

Sometime during our busy doy, we moy find time to see some of Western's unusual features, which lie all around us. Among other things, we're notionolly known for paper technology, aircrofts ond occupotional therapy . . . ond we're progressing in the field of psychology with our experimental rat laboratory. When we have time to think about it, we're proud of our school, but often we take it for gronted — which moy be quite a compliment in itself.

IT WAS ANOTHER 'first' at Western, when U. S. Vice-President Richard Nixon spoke in the fieldhouse.

ANOTHER celebrity visiting Kalamazoa was Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

NATIONALLY known in speech correction is Dr. Charles Van Riper.

DEDICATED TO HER work with the Rh factor in pregnant women — and renawned for it — is Dr. Bettina C. Jacksan.

Hearing the vice-president of the United States ar the widaw af on ex-president can be such an exciting experience that we forget for a mament that we have dignitaries among us on aur own campus. Take Dr. Van Riper, for instance — students flack to Western ta study under him. . . or Dr. Carter — the warld of science waits far her discoveries . . . ar Mr. Waads, Dr. Friedmann and Dr. Russel — they see themselves in print.

POET: Mr. Jahn Woads.

EXPERT on Mennanites: Dr. Robert Friedmann.

HISTORIAN: Dr. Robert Russel.

WITH THE FOCUS on 'new' campus, we go to the Waldo Library for our studying. It opened in June, 1958.

LIBRARIAN KATHARINE STOKES points out advantages of the new-to-Western 'open stacks.' Coed is Judy Sweeney.

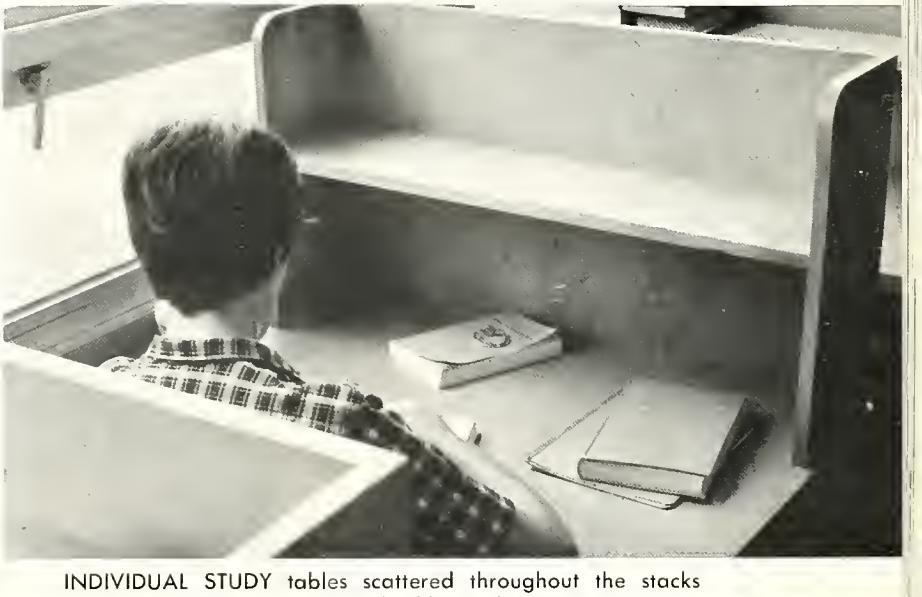

'Out of Our Dreams' Comes

IT'S A FRESH and relaxed atmosphere in our new library . . . and, oh! — how much more conducive to studying it is.

INDIVIDUAL STUDY tables scattered throughout the stacks are popular with most of us who like study privacy.

Spacious Dwight B. Waldo Library

"Out of our dreams and into the campus" is the rambling, conservative Waldo Library. It is designed for convenience, with open stacks, individual study tables, seminar rooms and tiny typing rooms. Dedicated in memory of Western's first president, it is decorated in memory of his interests: with stylized Lincoln and Indian motifs.

It's A WORLD OF FRIENDLINESS

It's a casual wave of the hand that typifies Western's friendliness — and then it's a dorm switchboard lighting up like a Christmas tree. It's groups of us going to the Student Center for coffee . . . or to the library to study . . . or to peaceful Kanley Chapel to worship.

'Getting to Know

A SMILE OF welcome fram dorm mother Mrs. Lucille Yost — how good this must have seemed to Jackie Matthews.

Rodgers and Hammerstein may never have been on Western's campus, but "Getting to Know You" seems to fit right into the shining newness of an excited freshman's life. There is the first faltering moment, quickly followed by conferences, meetings and parties There are dorm mothers to help them over the hump and many upperclassmen to "get to know" — soon!

You' Sets Orientation Week Spinning for Frosh

IT'S RUSH! Linda Daylrymple, Mary Ann Meninga meet 'sailors' Sue Scott, Jo Warring, Marlene Lazenby and Barb Tollerday.

'A MUST FOR everyone,' Chuck Jaquo advises freshmen Dave Dagly and Terry O'Connell, 'is a social calendar.'

'IT'S A LIFE as rollicking as Debbi's hobby horse,' say Bill and Marlene Karpinski of married life.

From Married to Fraternal

That watchword, "togetherness," could be tagged to Western, for here we see young married couples juggling the jobs of parenthood, student and bread-winner . . . we catch ivy-leaguers solving the world's problems — in a haze of smoke . . . and we find fraternity brothers playing a quick game of cards. It's a world of inter-dependence and of togetherness.

Life, It's Togetherness

IT'S EVERY MAN for himself when 'brothers' Dave Kallat, Val Blaugh, Carl Awe and Dave Drew play cards.

PSYCH PROFS, Dr. Jack Asher, Dr. John Papplestone, Dr. Frank Fatzinger, Dr. Richard Schmidt gather in old Union.

For Quick Refreshment,

Faculty, administrators and students all find enjoyment in meeting for coffee in the University Student Center or the old Walwood Union. The coffee fills a multitude of functions: it gives us courage to face an exam . . . wakes us up after a particularly long lecture hour . . . and, best of all, gives us an excuse for socializing with our friends. It's our lifeblood morning, noon and night through four years of college.

AFTER A MORNING class, a cup of coffee and a chat with friends are welcome features of the Student Center.

MEETING FOR COFFEE in the picnic table area of the Center are Wynn Berry, Mary Kay Donahue, Joan LaBombard.

We Turn to Universal Campus Lifeblood—Coffee

Whether our fingertips are reaching for glittering stars or whether our eyes are glued to the books in preparation for finals, we're not alone. Dates range from the casual study ones to the formal dinner-dances, and studying varies from the stag session to a twosome's quiet privacy in the library. These are the sparkling chapters of our life here at Western.

Touching Stars or Hitting Books,

IT'S A CASUAL date — but even those casual ones are special. Nancy Elferdink signs out, as Dave Hauer watches.

to Graduation, It's A GALAXY OF FEATURES

Homecoming . . . carnivals . . . assemblies . . . plays . . . "Fantasies" . . . Festival of Arts . . . dances . . . graduation: Our galaxy of features keeps us whirling from the mament our feet touch the campus until the day we march to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

ONCE MORE, a blazing bonfire heralds Western's homecoming.

Homecoming 1958: A Time

FEATURED AT THE annual jazz concert was the Modern Jazz Quartet.

To Remember

Homecoming 1958 is a time to remember, for alumni saw continued campus growth and seniors bewailed their last undergroduate homecoming celebration. It's a time to remember, too, for the traditional bonfire almost became a thing of the past . . . our parade was bigger and better than ever . . . we lost a heartbreaking game to the Toledo Rockets . . . and two big-name bands, Ralph Flanagan ond the Dorsey Brothers, ployed at the dances.

We Threw Pies and We Sculptured Snow

COPPING FIRST PLACE in the men's division was Delto Chi fraternity. Alpha Omicron Pi took first for the women.

If we cauldn't go west, we could bring the west to Western . . . so that was what we did for the annual Freshman Week carnival in the fall. With a "Western Badlands" theme, the booths included such novelties as a mining camp where carnival-goers panned for prizes; a chuck-wagon; and a corral with cowboys.

'WANTED: PIE FACE PETE' captured the imagination of the Pershing Rifles organization for the western-style carnival.

At Carnivals

Wonted: enough snow for a successful Snow Carnival. Received: enough snow for many successful carnivals. Weather was no hindrance this year for the annual Snow Carnival, but just in case the weatherman decided to reverse his tactics, many organizations gathered up and stored the precious white stuff. First place winners in the various snow sculpturing divisions were Ellsworth Hall, Delta Chi fraternity and Pershing Rifles.

'HONEST ABE' PROVIDED Ellsworth with subject for 1959 snow sculpture.

'SNO FOOLIN' — IT'S really Maby Dick and his whalers, sculptured by Delta Chi fraternity men.

'Going, Going, Gone'—for Charity

SEEING DOUBLE? WELL, look again. It's just one gal, Dar Lucas, who is performing at Carnicus.

There's gold in the heart of Western's organizations . . . and it glimmers through every year at Carnicus time. Faculty, students and organizations auction off their services to other organizations for a price. Bids go higher and higher. The cause? Charity. Faculty auction off such services as: a house detective; a lecture on "Love and Marriage;" and a shoe shine . . . while organizations volunteer to cook a breakfost or clean a fraternity house or provide an escort service for a week. Larry Ternan served as chairman of the event this year; and Dr. Milton Greenberg was an effective auctioneer.

'DETECTIVE': Mr. William Yankee.

BOX surprise: Tri Sigma.

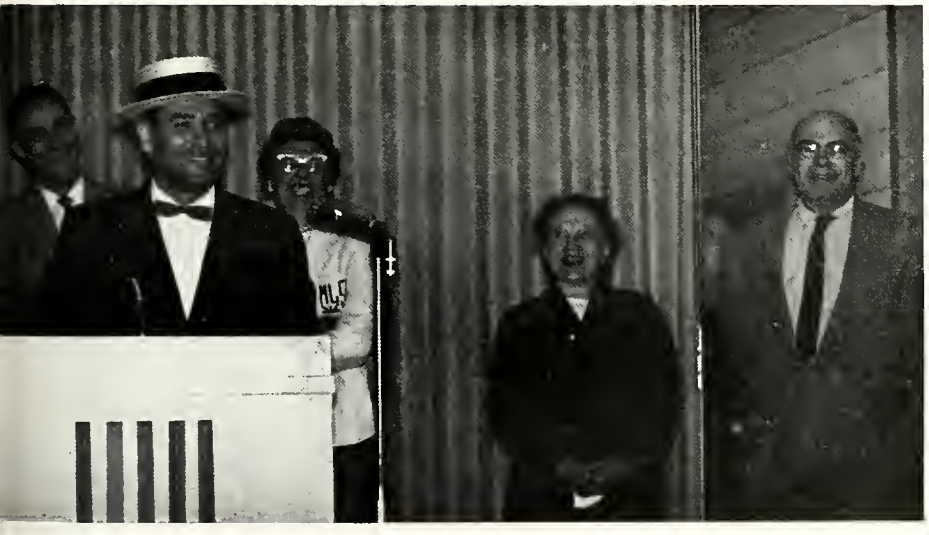

PANCAKES anyone? Dr. Leo Stine.

FROM MEN'S UNION to Carnicus: a load of pennies.

CHEERING section: the deons.

CANADIAN PLAYERS RETURN to campus to present Shaw's highly entertaining 'The Devil's Disciple.'

Speakers, Drama Equal Interesting Diversion

One of the best cures for boredom is attendance at one of the university-planned programs. Variety was the key this year, as Western brought to the campus programs ranging from "Printing Pleasantries" to "The Devil's Disciple." The former was an amusing lecture given in the fall by Charles Shaw; the latter, the entertaining play presented by the Canadian Players. Other assemblies this year included: Irving Levine, speaking on "American-Soviet Relations in 1959;" Dr. Tim Stinnett, on education; Emlyn Williams, in a rollicking one-man show from the stories of Dylan Thomas, "A Boy Growing Up" and Victor Riesel, on labor problems.

Masks of Tragedy, Comedy Show in Drama

Several plays, from one for children to readers' theatre productions, were presented this year for the enjoyment of Western students and faculty. The dramotic season storted off in a light vein with "On Borrowed Time." Others throughout the year included "the Children's Hour," portraying the results of malicious slander; a faculty readers' theotre, Show's "Don Juan in Hell;" a children's play, "Mystery of the Sandalwood Box;" and a student readers' theatre, "Antigone."

PICTURED BELOW ARE scenes from the shocking 'Children's Hour' and the hilarious 'On Borrowed Time.'

'There's No Business Like Show Business' at Western

MARCIA HEIDEN AND Ken Young play lead roles in 1959 Brown and Gold Fantasies.

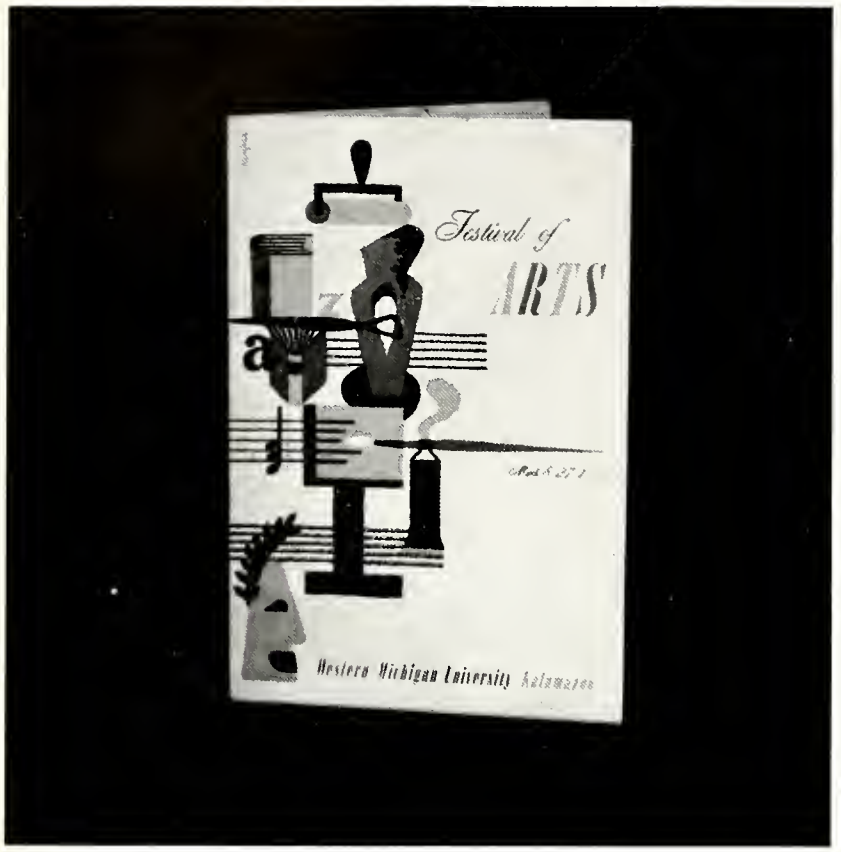

IT'S QUITE A thing to have an automobile in Arundel Creek. Entire cast comes on stage for phenomenon.

What happens when the wildest boy in town and the most proper young girl fall in love? "A New Day Dawning" used this problem to bring out the love, social prejudices, frustration and humor in the small town of Arundel Creek. With the production of "A New Day Downing," Western students had the opportunity to see another of the annual student-written, student-produced, student-acted and student-choreographed musicals. Success of these productions makes it possible for one to believe that truly there is "No business like show business."

Festival of Arts Spotlights 'Creativity' This Year

"Creativity" was spotlighted at this year's Festival of Arts held during March. Art, literature, music and droma were brought to the student body and faculty for the annual festival. The festival begon with the opening of the student art exhibit and continued with Emlyn Williams' dramatic interpretation, "A Boy Growing Up;" Phi Mu Alpha's "A Study in Jazz;" the production of "Everyman," a medieval morality play; and the presentation of Dr. Holon Matthews' compositions in lecture-recital form.

FOR OPENING OF Art Exhibit, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Sangren inspect ane of the attractive wooden bowls on display.

AT A LOSS for titles? Try 'Ugly Man.' In keen competition, Russ Kappitz was chosen this year's ugliest.

'We Danced All Night . . .'

"We could have danced all night," but — unlike Elizo of My Fair Lady fame — we have hours to keep. Nevertheless, Friday and Saturday night dances have been a much-looked-forward-to part of our college career. From the informality of the Homecoming sock hop to the very formal spring Cotillion, we danced from weekend to weekend. And at nearly every dance, there was some type of royalty . . . a homecoming queen, a Topsy Turvy queen, a Campus Couple, a Snow queen, a Carnation Ball queen, an Ugly Man, a Cotillion King. It seems that a dance just wouldn't be a dance without royalty.

COTILLION KEEPS ALIVE formal dance tradition.

Classes, Studies Claim Most Of Our Attention at Western

Through our four years of college, perhaps the persons who deserve a great deal more credit than they ever receive are our administrators and our teachers.

Western's President: Dr. Paul Sangren

DR. PAUL V. SANGREN has been Western's president since 1936, when he succeeded Dwight Waldo, first president.

CENTRAL PHOTO

Dr. Paul V. Sangren, president of Western Michigan University since 1936, first joined the education faculty in 1923. A graduate of Eastern Michigan College, he took his master's degree at the University of Michigan in 1922 and his doctor of philosophy degree there in 1925-26. He returned to Western in 1926 in the capacity of director of the bureau of educational research. Two years later, he was named head of the education department; and, in 1934, dean of administration. Dr. Sangren has served as president of several state and national education groups and has authored several texts. He and his wife have two children.

THE PRESIDENT AND his wife enjoy a football game.

VICE-PRESIDENT in charge of academic affairs is Dr. Russell H. Seibert, formerly a professor of history.

Academic Affairs

Dr. Russell H. Seibert was named vice-president for academic affairs in 1956. Previously, he had served as director of basic studies in addition to his classroom duties as a professor of history. He received his A.B. degree from the College of Wooster; an M.A. from the University of Chicago; and a Ph.D. from Ohio State University. Dr. Seibert holds membership in Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta, Pi Gamma Mu, the American Historical Association, Torch Club and Rotary. In 1951, 1954 and 1957, he was co-director of a social studies seminar to England and the continent. He is married and has two daughters, Prudence and Priscilla.

HE TAKES a minute out to listen to a joke.

VICE-PRESIDENT for student services and public relations is Dr. L. Dale Faunce, who came here in 1956.

Student Services

HE DISCUSSES student issues with Karen Gernant.

Graduated from Western in 1935, Dr. L. Dale Faunce returned to the campus in 1956 to become the first vice-president of student services and public relations, following an administrative reorganization. He received his M.A. from the University of Michigan and his Ed. D. from Michigan State University. Before coming to Western, he was dean of students and director of student affairs at the State University of Iowa. Dr. Faunce is a native of Harbor Springs, is married and has two sons and one daughter.

Administrators Who Meet the Students

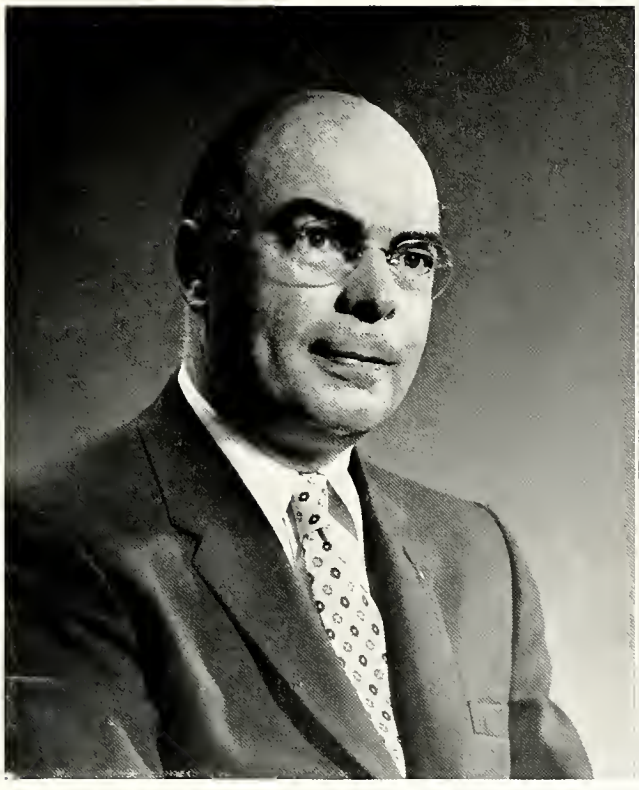

DR. PAUL GRIFFITH holds the newly created post of dean of students.

COUNSELORS INCLUDE Mr. Norman Russell, Miss Lola Haller, Miss Josephine Nicolette and Dr. Edward Robinson.

ALSO PLANNING students' programs are Mr. Harry Lawson, Mr. Glen Rice, Miss Isabel Crane and Mr. Lewis Crawford.

WORKING AS assistant dean of men is Mr. Sterling Breed.

ASSISTANT DEANS OF women are Miss Marie Stevens and Mrs. Frank Householder, who schedules social activities.

COMPTROLLER for the school is Mr. C. B. MacDonold.
MR. VERN Mabie directs placement and olumni relations.

DEAN OF KANLEY Memorial Chapel is Dr. Alan S. Brown, alsa a member of the history department.

Administrators

REGISTRAR AND director of admissions at Western is Mr. Clayton J. Mous.

ASSISTANT REGISTRAR is Dr. Keith W. Smith, who came here in 1955 from Purdue where he held the same post.

The comptroller . . . the director of placement and alumni relations . . . the dean of the chapel . . . the registrar and his assistant . . . We may not see these men too often, but they are vitally important to our life here at Western. These are the "men behind the scenes."

--And More Administrators

DIRECTING THE University Student Center and the residence halls keeps Mr. Donald N. Scatt busy.

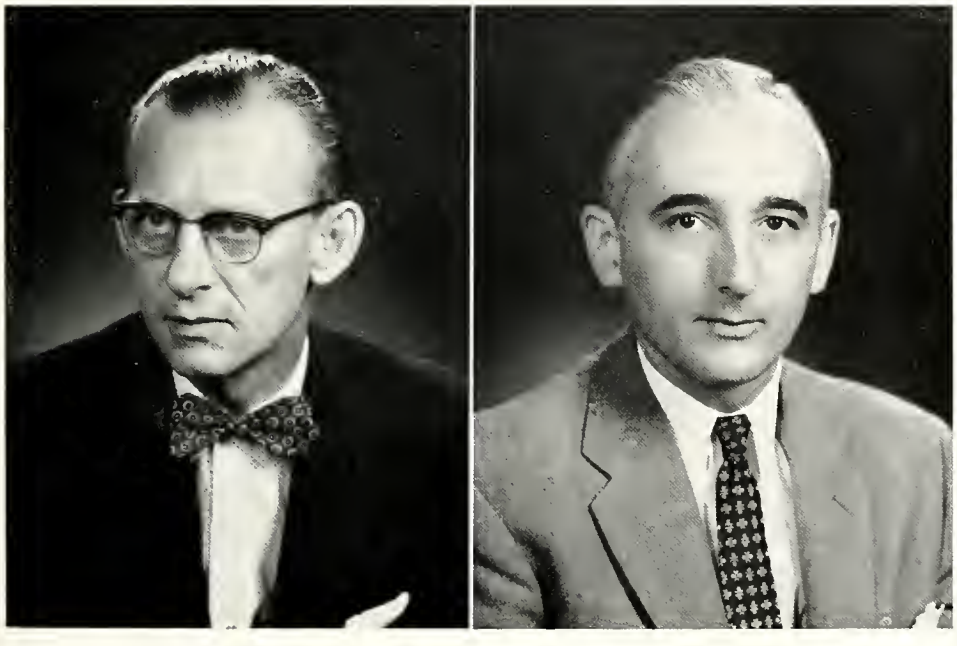

EQUALLY AS BUSY are his assistants, Mr. John W. Randoll, Mr. Archie Potter and Mr. John Hungerford.

Supervising the work of the University Student Center and the residence halls and other housing occupies the time of Mr. Donald N. Scott, director; Mr. Archie Potter, director of housing; Mr. John Hungerford, assistant director of the Student Center; and Mr. John W. Randall, director of food services.

DEAN OF THE School of Graduate Studies is Dr. George G. Mallinson.

Arista

Symbol of excellence for women on Western's campus is Arista, honor society. Members are tapped in the spring at the annual June breakfast by senior Aristans and are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to the school. Each year, Aristans sell candy apples at the carnivals . . . and, at homecoming time, they hold a coffee for alumnae members. In January, they entertain sophomore honor students at the Sophomore Honor Chocolate. And — finally — in May, they honor outstanding senior women at the annual Rose Day. This year, Thalia Bairas leads the group as president; Marge Show is vice-president; Jean Harper, recording secretary; Margarete Nacke, corresponding secretary; and Ursula Knap, treasurer. Sponsors are Dr. Elizabeth Lichty, Miss Ethel Green and Mrs. Ann Szalkowski.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Men's counterpart of Arista is the Western Michigan University Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa. Its program is based on the purposes of Omicron Delta Kappa: to recognize men who have achieved a high standard of efficiency in campus activities and have maintained a high scholarship; to bring together representative men from all phases of campus life to help mould sentiment on collegiate issues; and to bring together members of the faculty and student body to discuss matters of campus concern. Officers this year are: Thomas Goldsberry, president; James Eger, vice-president; Charles Lynch, treasurer; Mr. Charles Starring, secretary; and Mr. J. Towner Smith, Mr. Robert Wetnight and Dr. Oscor Harst, spansors.

Epsilon Pi Tau

High point of the year for the Epsilon Pi Tau, honorary industrial arts and industrial vocational education fraternity, was a research project. Student members sent out questionaires to secondary schools throughout Michigan in an attempt to find out the projects used in industrial education. The data was compiled and results were published for their membership and for the schools interested in the results. Other highlights of the year included a formal initiation dinner and a breakfast at the yearly conference of the Michigan Industrial Education Society. Primary purposes of the organization are: to recognize the place of skill; to promote social and professional proficiency; and to foster, reward, publish and use the results of research. Officers are: Ranald Kennedy, president; Richard Laninga, vice-president; Carl Scully, secretary; Donald Schneider, treasurer; and John Kruger, publicity director. Phi Mu Alpha

They may be musicians, but they're also Western's prize float-builders! For three years, the members of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, honorary music fraternity, have constructed a float which captured the judges' eyes. This year, they won the grand prize with an elaborate and delicately executed "City of the Desert," done in shades of blue and silver. Other major octivities for the men of Phi Mu Alpha are the Jazz Concert, sponsorship of Fraternity Sing, American Musicale and a dance co-sponsored with Sigma Alpha Iota.

To become a member of Phi Mu Alpha, men must have an active interest in music and have a 3.0 average in music courses and a 2.5 overall average Western's Delta Iota chapter wos chartered in 1948 and now has a total of 30 student members. This year, Gary Forsleff is president. Other officers include: Dean Amos, vice-president; Glen Dehn, secretory; and Bob Gray, treasurer. The organization's spansors are Mr. Sam Adams, Mr. Thomas Hardie, Mr. Charles Osborne and Mr. Robert Schieber.

Student Activities Committee

Student Activities Committee — better known as SAC — is considered the top policy-making committee on campus. It is empowered with the right of review of all activities of the Student Body. It acts as the direct sponsor of Student Council, and governs the organization and conduct of all student organizations on campus. The committee is made up of six faculty and six student representatives. Co-chairmen are Mr. J. Towner Smith, dean of men, and Kurt Duffy, president of Student Council.

Student Council

Whether drinking a coffee "toast" to the holidays or going through convention demonstrations, Student Council members manage to keep pretty busy with their duties. Always expanding, the Student Council this year initiated three new activities: selection of a "professor of the year;" sponsorship of Dad's Day; and an information booth for Freshman Week. The council's main activities include the campus elections and the annual Leadership Conference, featuring a banquet and workshops for campus leaders. Officers are: Kurt Duffy, president; Jim Hough, vice-president; Dick Buehler, recording secretary; Sue McCombe, administrative ossistant; Mary Ann Ohman, corresponding secretary; Dick Terry, parliamentarian; James Walworth, treasurer; Ron Weimer, election director; Sally Vykydal, publicotions director; and Jack Ristau, auditor.

Associated Women Students

One of the busiest organizations an campus is the Associated Women Students. Realizing that university life is a bewildering world to freshmen, they sponsor a "senior sister" program in the fall in order to orient the new coeds to the campus.

Highlights of the year are the fall and spring formal dances which they sponsor. TWIRP week each semester is also an important project of the women.

Charm School, Wednesday afternoon Kaffee Klubs, a Dad's Day coffee and a Mother's Day tea fill in the social calendor. Climaxing the school year is the much-anticipated June Breakfast, honoring outstanding women students.

Molly Newland, president, has been assisted this year by Mary Fitzpatrick, first vice-president; Freddie Pfeiffer, second vice-president; Marge Kobe, recording secretary; Glenda LaVanway, corresponding secretary; Marge Shaw, treasurer; and Win Myers, publicity.

Highlighting the year for Men's Union Board members is the sponsorship of the annual Snow Carnival. Usually worried about the weatherman's cooperation, the men could relax in the face of this year's stormy winter. Included in the carnival were a beard contest, snow sculptures, house displays, a tobbogan contest — all climaxed by the Snow Ball.

Other social activities include: Cotillion, the only formal dance of the yeor; open houses; ping pong, pool, bowling and card contests; and out-of-town athletic trips.

Probably the most outstanding contribution of the group during the past year was planning and participating in the Region Five Conference of the Association of College Unions held at Western in November. Nearly 200 delegates were present.

Officers of the board have been: Bob Harris, president; Vince Desmond, vice-president; Fred Sitkins, program director; Don Peebles, secretary; Ron Miller, treasurer; and Mr. Charles Starring, Mr. Donald Scott and Mr. J. Towner Smith, sponsors.

Men's Student Court

Whether it is a traffic violation or an infraction of the basic rules of living in a university situation, the Men's Court is always there to aid male students through counseling and if necessary, disciplinary action.

In the fall, Western hosted eleven schools here for the Associated College Unions Conference. Many members of the court attended these meetings. In addition, all of the justices attended the Student Council Leadership Conference.

Alfred Gaulzetti has served as chief justice, with Clem Nicoloff as assistant chief justice. Other justices include Robert Hogerty, William Watkinson, William Pappas, John Andrews and James Ahmed, who is also the process server. Richard Terry is the recorder. Administrative representatives ore Mr. J. Towner Smith and Mr. Sterling Breed.

American Marketing Association

Devoted to the purpose of bringing marketing students in contact with successful marketing men in industry, trade and commerce is the Western Michigan University chapter of the American Marketing Association. The 52 members gather for a meeting the first Wednesday of every month.

John Flower has led the group as president this year, assisted by Dave Beiser, vice-president in charge of programs; Dick Johnson, vice-president in charge of membership; Arnie Shavel, treasurer; Mike Galvin, secretary; Art True, publicity; and Mr. Robert Trader, sponsor.

GRADUATING SENIORS RECEIVE congratulations at the demit ceremony held in their honor.

A combination of professional activities and social functions are offered to students in the school of business through membership in Alpha Kappa Psi. Each semester, the chapter has numerous guest speakers from business and industry. In addition to the professional lectures, the members tour industrial and business firms; a student management day is planned annually; and each spring, the group sponsors a career day program for business students.

Highlighting the social season each year is a birthday banquet, celebrating the anniversary of the chapter.

Chandler Gibson, president, has been assisted this year by Leonard Hiatt, vice-president; John Hefferan, secretary; Larry Phillips, treasurer; and Norman Ginebaugh, master of rituals. Sponsors are Dr. Arnold Schneider, Dr. Edwin Beal, Mr. Robert Wetnight, Mr. Robert Trader and Mr. William Burdick.

Alpha Phi Omega

Can you imagine registration without the APO'S? And how lost the freshmen would be without their freshman orientation?

Either helping out at the health service, ushering for college assemblies or cleaning up after carnivals, the APO's are always behind the scenes helping to better the university.

Life isn't all work, though, for they have a large banquet at Cotillion time, go caroling with the YMCA and Kappa Phi at Christmas and have a spring picnic. They also sponsor the Ugly Man contest and dance, with proceeds going to charity.

Peter Herber, president, has been assisted this year by Bill Stankey, vice-president; Bob Biek, treasurer; Bill Brandt, recording secretary; Jim Baird, corresponding secretary; and Dr. James Pawell, Mr. John Lindbeck and Mr. Lindsay Farnan, sponsors.

Women's Debate

Ten young women represented Western in intercollegiate debate and discussion this year. Outstanding event of the season occurred when the debaters hosted approximately 100 delegates at the Tau Kappa Alpha regional conference. Barbara Rupp placed third, winning another plaque for the women's squad.

Hazardous driving conditions and illness forced the women to restrict their schedule, but despite these handicaps, they participated in seven debate tournaments; one discussion conference and four legislative sessions. Individual debates were held with Notre Dame, Eastern Michigan, Battle Creek Community, Central Michigan and Wayne State.

WESTERN DEBATERS HOSTED Tau Kappa Alpha regional conference in the fall.

Men's Debate

It was a busy year for men's debaters, too, as the men debated at Wayne State, Albion, Michigan State, the University of Illinois, Flint Junior College, Alma, Bellarmine, Xavier and Marquette.

Winning regional honors at the TKA conference was Ed Rintye who placed fourth among the top ten discussionists.

Eight men were entered in the annual MISL tournament at East Lansing and they compiled the respectable record of six wins ond six losses. Chic Broersma and Vic Luzi went undefeated and Larry Jones received a certificate for excellence in debate. Other men attending the tournament were Ed Rintye, Ken Noble, Dave Cunningham, Glenn Smith and Ken Kaiser.

Western's schedule for the balance of the season included a television appearance on Michigan State's program, "Controversy."

Home Economics Club

Do you feel right at home with a needle and thread in one hand and an eggbeater in the other? These gals do!

The Home Economics club is open to all students who are in one or more home economics classes. Monthly meetings ore held in McCracken. The club started off the yeor with an annual cookout. For the next activity, the girls turned their attention to a Christmas bazaar . . . and in May, they remembered their mothers on Mother's Day with a style show of the latest fashions. Climaxing their activities was the senior recognition banquet.

Gail Havens, president, has been assisted by Dale Nettum, vice-president; Eleanor McClurkin, secretary; and Ruth Johanson, treasurer. Miss Betty Taylor and Dr. Eunice Herald are sponsors.

Industrial Arts Association

A saw, a boord, o drill ond a few nails — plus a good-sized membership — odd up to the Industriol Arts Association.

Each year the activities of the IA association begin ond end with a picnic. The first is a welcome for new members and the last marks the completion of a busy year. The organization's activities include a homecoming float, an open house in the department, participation in national and state industrial orts exhibits, industrial visitations and speakers, and informal and sociol functions including the annual spring dinner-dance.

Membership is open to all majors ond minors in industrial arts. Funds are raised by making and selling poddles to the fraternities on campus.

International Club

Want to travel to a different country twice a month? That's what the members of the International club do. During the last year, students from 21 different countries around the globe participated in its activities. By its very existence, this club promotes friendship and understonding between the people of America and other countries.

Each meeting is devoted to one particular country. Students from that land show slides or movies and present some of the cultural and sociological aspects of their home land.

The club is sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Fred Beeler, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Lo, and Mr. James Boynton. Officers include: Carl Priestland, president; Adele Schenk, vice-president; Mildred Urquiola, secretary; and Sybil Wilson, treasurer.

Phi Epsilon

A canoe trip down the Kalamazoo River in the fall; Christmas caroling and filling baskets for needy families in the winter; and house party in the spring are a few of the activities that keep the girls of Phi Epsilon busy.

This year Phi Epsilon, a professional fraternity for girls who are majors or minors in physical education, has worked closely with the men's physical education group. Together they toured the new physical research laboratory at Michigan State University. Panel discussions are held on the problems and practice in physical education. Co-educational games play a part in the combined activities, too.

Speeches for the regular monthly meetings include such topics as posture, teaching aids and physical education for the retarded. Officers for the year were Marcia Yaw, president; Shirley Keidel, vice-president; Nancy Rickert, secretary; and Gail Mitchell, treasurer. Sponsors were Miss Joette Hainks and Miss Anita Tedford.

Student Petroleum Association

Though they aren't actually digging for oil, members of the Student Petroleum Association do devote time to digging for information about the oil industry.

SPA draws its members from those students who are registered in the petroleum marketing field. Every Tuesday night, the association meets in the distributive education building to listen to a person from the oil industry speak on various fields of the industry.

At these meetings, they learn more about the selling, transporting, and other phases of the marketing and distribution of petroleum products.

This year's officers include: Myron Holmgren, president; Larry Beach, vice-president; Dale Hoover, treasurer; Mick Hartnett, corresponding secretary; and Dave McGee, recording secretary. Mr. W. B. Fidler and Mr. Adrian Trimpe are sponsors.

Sigma Alpha Tau

As at home in the air as they are on the ground are the members of Sigma Alpha Tau, honorary air transportation fraternity. This group, made up of juniors and seniors, includes some ex-military pilots and many members of the Sky Broncos club.

With a program of speakers and representatives from various airlines and aviation industries, Sigma Alpha Tau is often the first real contact with the air transportation industry that the student has.

Duane Schmaltz, president, has been assisted this year by William Earnest, vice-president; Robert Graichen, recording secretary; William Woods, corresponding secretary; Robert Stanek, treasurer; and Mr. Robert Ring and Mr. William Wichers, sponsors.

Student National Education Association

Soon to be on the other side of the "apple polishing" routine are the members of the Student National Education Association. This group provides prospective members with opportunities for developing personally; for gaining an understanding of the history, ethics ond program of the teaching profession; and for active membership on the locol, state, national and world levels.

The George Hilliard chapter of the Future Teachers of America was the first college chapter in Michigan and one of the first in the nation. This year, in the fall of 1958, the Michigan FTA chapters became student NEA chapters, due to the fact thot college chapters differ from high school chapters in interest.

Members of the SNEA are also student members of the Michigan Education Association and the National Educotion Association with the some rights, privileges and responsibilities of regular members. SNEA officers for this year are: Albert Krieger, president; Lucille Corwin, vice-president; Mary Lynn Marquard, secretary; and Joe Parker, treasurer. The meetings are sponsored by Miss Betty Johnson.

AN APPLE FOR these teachers: ROW 1, Amy Merlau, Patricia Hay, Sally Urbanski, Marie Kallas, Virginia Zebaor, Kathern Placeway; ROW 2, Margie Furman, Marlene Galle, Carol Darman, Jean Correll, Fran Buccellato, Marilyn Hennes, Linda Harman, JoAnn Gerardo, Carol Bauer, Karen Sweet, Lucille Corwin; ROW 3, Mrs. Winifred MacFee, Tom Corwin, R. Society for Advancement of Management

Some things are better learned outside the classroom. The Society for Advancement of Management works to supplement academic knowledge in the field of business with first-hond information. This is accomplished by hoving speakers from both local and outside industries. In addition to hearing speakers, the members take seminor-type tours of area industries, including Sutherlond Paper Company, Fuller Manufocturing Company and New York Air Brake.

Each year, SAM gives an award to an individual in recognition of his contributions to industry and the community in which he lives. This year's president, Don Campbell, was assisted by Dick Johnson, publicity; Jerry Prevette, membership; Otto Sonefeld, programs; Ed Byrne, secretary; and Bill Kiel, corresponding secretory. Dr. Arnold Schneider, Mr. Emil Sokolowski, Dr. Edwin Beal, Mr. Leo Niemi and Dr. Robert Bowers are sponsors.

GAINING FIRST-HAND INFORMATION about business are: ROW 1, Richard Johnson, Robert Gaff Jr., Arthur True, Edword Byrne, Carol Balinski, Carol VanHoften, John Henry, Otto Sonefeld, Don Compbell, Mr. Emil Sokolowski; ROW 2, Richard Westrick, John Greenman, Richard Deter, Duane Stepnitz, Thomas Taylor, Clarence VanderBorgh, Frederick Boersmo, Dave Toot, John Flower, Warren Johnston, Dr. Edwin Beal; ROW 3, Bill Kiel, Bob Bender, Tom Chronert, John McLauchlin, George Siggins, C. David Mohan, Bruce Wisner, Joseph Horak, Gerald Smith, Charles West, Gordon Stockhill, Thomas Chimitt.

Spanish Club:
Ecos Espanoles

"Exotic" might describe the activities of the Spanish club, for members travel vicariously to Spain, Mexico and Latin American countries through programs at their meetings once a month.

Other activities of the club include: a homecoming coffee; a Christmas party; attending a Spanish play in Ann Arbor; a picnic; and a weekly Spanish table in the Student Center every Tuesday night.

Karen Meisel, president, is assisted by Nancy Mason, vice-president; Mildred Urquiola, secretary; and Jim Copping, treasurer. Advisor for the group is Mr. Herb Jones.

Women's Recreation Association

It's the top of the ninth inning and the score is all tied up!

— And this could easily happen in the intramural taurnaments of the Women's Recreatian Association. Besides saftball, these include basketball, volleyball and badmintan. The recreatian girls are kept happing with plans for such things as co-recreation play nights. The members of the recreatian association also have a chance to visit other colleges and universities and participate in their play days.

Officers are Judy Wilber, president; Elizabeth McAvoy, vice-president; Margoret Ferraro, treasurer; Lillian Dzialak, secretary; Mary McQueen and Greta Soderman, intramural ca-chairmen; Kay McAnallen, co-recreatian chairman; Alice Langford, publicity chairman; and Miss Margie Miner, spansar.

Western Wives

Ever hear of a PHTS degree? The Western Wives get them every year, for many of them are putting their husbands through school.

A homecoming float for the parade launched this year's activities. Shortly after this, a dinner was held for members and their husbands. Keeping the women busy during the year are sponsoring a needy family at Christmas and holding rummage and bake sales.

This year's officers include: Jauretta Dale, president; Nona Miller, vice-president; Phyllis Stanek, recording secretary; Phyllis Karboske, corresponding secretary; and Anne Wilder, treasurer.

EARNING PHTS DEGREES are: TOP PICTURE, ROW 1, Gale Chamberlin, Gloria Quick, Sam Watkinson, Betty Mitchell, Margaret Aley, Roxie Mulvihill, Linda Badger, Esther Pawer, Diane Xenos; ROW 2, Ardith Wallace, Mildred Owen, Marilyn Harton, Marjarie Morris, Doloris Phillips, Betty Kocher, Marilyn Schutter, Barbara Damvelt, Elsie Doornbos; ROW 3, Janice Fifer, Arlene Johnson, Geraldine Tornquist, Esther Crim, Helen Bond, Barbara Frosch, Susan Drake, Barbara Walk; ROW 4, Marjorie Rohrer, Gloria Gielczyk, Jayce Snyder, Bonnie Rawe, Mary Ann Kay, Nancy Franklin, Marilyn Moyer, Vel Gibson, Jan Oudersma; ROW 5, Linda McConnell, Joanne Skidmore, Loretta Schneider, Carole Drayton, Nancy Ingalsbee, Jeanne Lahti, Sharon Hoffner, Mory Bunting, Judy Wilson; SECOND PICTURE, ROW 1, Jean Scott, Phyllis Stanek, Marlene Karpinski, Carolyn Bredin, Nona Miller, Jauretta Dale, Phyllis Karboske, Margaret Gapske, Bonnie Van Deventer; ROW 2, Julie Ann Leach, Lyeliene Ann Hoehne, Eunice Cutler, Deonna Stralle, Jo Stralle, Dee Dee Condra, Mary Annette Hoatlin; ROW 3, Joan Maursey, Ardith Raak, Sally Noggle, Mary Ferguson, Ann Conrad, Anito LeNeave, Helen Bareis, Elizabeth Mohan; ROW 4, Sally Tubas, Mary Lou Guilbault, Peggy Rodgers, Thelma Lubbinge, Nancy Kennedy, Judy Scully, Carole Joyce, Wanda Smith; ROW 5, Janice Frederick, Barbara Hoase, Kathleen Murray, Joan Scheer, Barbara Flower, Patricia Soderlind, Priscilla Taylor, Joan Howard.

'THE WATER'S FINE,' say Miss Margaret Large, Virginia Wood, Phyllis Beu, Jaan Bryce, Delores Knowles, Carol Kriekoord, Ruth Herman, Shirley VanValkenburg.

Water Sprites

As much ot home in the water as out of it, these gals are known as the Water Sprites.

Practices for the public performance — a water ballet — are held in the Field House pool every Tuesday night. This annual spring show involves more than just the ability to perform routines, for the script, scenery and costumes are all original.

Sponsoring this synchronized group is Miss Margaret Large. Officers are: Shirley VanValkenburg, president; Ruth Herman, vice - president; Bonnie Boaz, secretory; and Corol Kriekaard, treasurer.

Pre-Med Club

"Nurse, please hand me the scalpel." It's a professional voice saying this . . . and a voice that — ten years from now — may belong to one of Western's present Pre-Med club members.

Cancer, surgery and occupational therapy are a few of the subjects which the members of the Pre-Med club have been learning about within the past year. Different speakers, discussions, field trips to hospitals and movies have given these students a deeper understanding of their chosen profession.

Organizational leaders for the past year were Walter Robison, president; Arnold Werschky, vice-president; Richard Fisher, secretary; and Mr. Harry Lawson and Mr. Merrill Wiseman, sponsors.

Torch and Blade

Setting the pace for the Torch and Blade Society is the officers' code, "Duty, Honor, Country." Through the tenets of this code, the group is dedicated to military professional betterment and good citzenship.

Highlight of the year for members of Torch and Blade is the annual spring military ball, which they sponsor. Other activities include: summer camp orientation for juniors in the society; and an award for "Outstanding Military Appearance" to a cadet enrolled in the basic course.

David Bell, commandant, is assisted by Richard Smith, executive officer; Kenneth Nakakura, adjutant; and Capt. George Rankin and Sgt. Robert Barlock, sponsors.

University Publications

WMU PUBLICITY DIRECTOR: Mr. Russell A. Strong.

MR. STRONG GOES over galley proofs for the alumni magazine with his secretary, Mrs. Harry Roe.

From whipping out hometown releases to setting up color covers for his nationally recognized News Magazine, Mr. Russell A. Strong keeps the public informed of the doings at Western Michigan University. If you are a student and active in some organization or activity, this news will almost certainly find its way into your hometown paper . . . and if you are a faculty member and gaining recognition, the local daily will carry the news. In addition to routine releases, Mr. Strong is in charge of the publication of a supplementary news letter, the bulletin and numerous brochures. As if this were not enough, he manages to find time to act as yearbook advisor. Publicity is a busy world.

'WHAT, ME WORRY?' 'Well, not too much, anyway,' laughs 1959 yearbaak editor Karen Gernant.

Brown and Gold

Putting out o yearbook is an exciting experience. It begins with the appointment of key staff members in May of the previous year and doesn't end 'til the final proofs are ready neorly a year later. In between, there is little time for anything but yearbook work, studies and very occasional coffee breaks. There are the first nebulous plans — "Will they ever jell?" — and then they become real . . . they take definite shape and you're relieved.

ASSISTANT EDITOR: Jahn Hefferan.

SPORTS EDITOR: Larry Bullock.

After the first wave of relief, a series of problems descend upon the editor and the staff . . . and there is the constant question: "What do we do now?" There are pictures to schedule and pictures to retake; copy to write and copy to rewrite. There are proofs from the engraver and page proofs from the printer; there is the cover design to approve and layouts to change — all of which adds up to exciting confusion.

BUSINESS MANAGER: Barbara McBride.

Key Staff Members in 1959

PHOTOGRAPHIC STAFF: Phil Frye, Bill Firebaugh, Dave Seaman, Ken Rabitaille, Dan Watkins.

And then, at last, comes the end of the semester when the 1959 staff can begin to relax and the 1960 staff can begin to farmulate new ideas. Heading the staff this year were: Karen Gernant, editar; Barbara McBride, business manager; John Hefferan, assistant editar; Barbara Woadford, copy editar; Larry Bullock, sports editar; and Martha Lawnsbury, designer of the cover. It's been a year to remember.

Western Herald

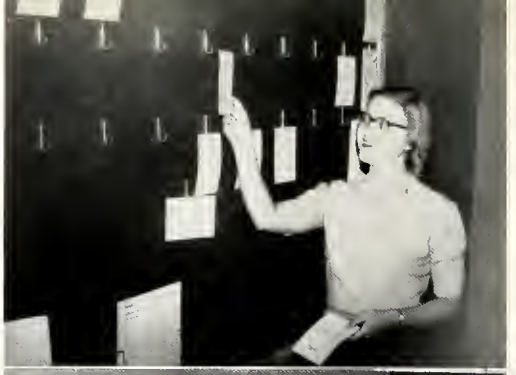

Besides a coat of new paint on all walls of the Western Herald offices, there's a new look and idea in the newspaper created there.

The biggest accomplishment of the approximately 30 staff members was to begin publishing the Herald twice a week. The first mid-week edition was issued on spring election day, March 18.

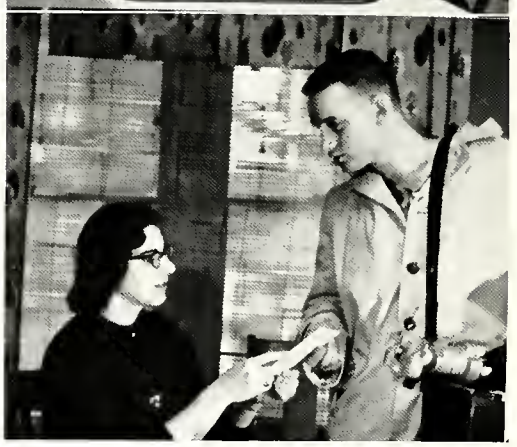

Before this time, the staff tried to accommodate its readers by issuing a 12-page homecoming edition, two registration issues and an extra issue before Thanksgiving vacation.

KAY HIGBEE, editor, pastes up bi-weekly newspaper.

ELAINE RASMUSSEN, news editar.
GARY HARDEN, sports editar.
NANCY POFF and Phil Frye, assistant news editar and photo editor.

TYPING OUT WEEK'S top stories are Irene Warsaw, Dan Davidson, Shirley Warthington, Don Lessner, Karen Trofast.

MAKING UP AN ISSUE of the Herald are Dave Krieder, Elaine Valker, Steve Lewis, Bob Haner, Dick Green.

In November, five members of the staff attended the Associated Collegiate Press convention in Chicago where they received encouragement from well-known journolists who told them that the Herald showed excellent make-up and good news coverage.

The newspaper staff has no journalism advisor. To give the Herald offices in the Ty House a more professional touch, Kay Higbee designed a table used exclusively for make-up. Then the staff enlisted the services of Theta Xi fraternity to paint the offices for 99 cents.

BUSINESS MATTERS FELL into the hands of Charles Lynch, business manager, and Bob Disbalis, advertising manager.

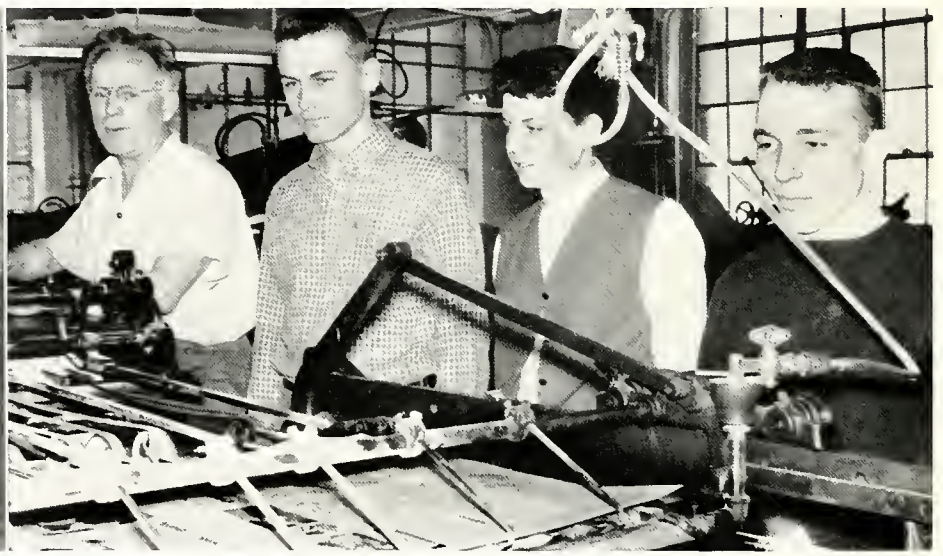

More Herald Personalities

All editorial policies of the Herald are left to the editor's discretion. This year the Herald offered anyone the opportunity to express his views through the Letters to the Editor or as a guest editorial writer.

Though monetary reward does not nearly pay the students who spend countless hours at their typewriters or covering stories, the personal satisfaction of knowing that they are solely responsible for publishing Western's newspaper is sufficient.

SPECIAL WRITERS: Parvin Lee, Phil Adams, Al Cann.

REPORTERS LARRY TERNAN, Jeanne Giardina, Jim Zena, watch the Herald come off the presses.

PUTTING OUT special homecaming issue required help of Men's Union members and other friends of the staff.

Calliope

Student written expression finds an outlet on campus thraugh the medium af "Calliape," Western's literary magazine. Short staries, paetry and essays may be found in the pages af this jaurnal, which is published twice a year.

Richard Hauck has been editar for the past year. Others in editarial positions include: Jahn Rothbun, assistant editar; Mary Ann Willioms, business manager; Julie Picken, fiction editar; Pete Green, nonfiction editor; Bryce Forester, poetry editar. Sponsors are Mr. Edward Callan and Dr. Phillip Denenfeld.

Women's Glee Club

Voices of the Women's Glee Club are available on a record now. They are on one side of a record put out by RCA, and the Men's Glee Club is on the other.

Singing for the Christmas Chocolate, for the Rose Day program and for organizations keeps the group pretty busy here on campus. Besides this, they sing at various area high schools. Their annual formal concert is held on Mother's Day weekend.

In the social line, the group holds an annual picnic and has a banquet in the fall.

Lenore Feige, president, is assisted by Betty Day, vice-president; Danna Grill, secretary; Arvida Mottsan, treasurer; and Janet Williams and Audrey Bredeweg, librarians. Mrs. Dorothea Sage Snyder is the director.

Men's Glee Club

Want to hear the Men's Glee Club in your living room? You can, for the price of a record — for, according to plans — the group is on one side of a record released this spring by RCA.

In addition to this project, the club has been busy giving concerts at area high schools and singing at special school functions, such as the Honors Convocation in the spring. They also went to Chicago in April for a concert.

Accompanying the 55 voices is Gary Forsleff. Officers are: Eugene McCoy, president; Gordon Ondersmo, secretary; and Carlysle Chiddister, treasurer. Mr. Jack Frey is director.

GIVING A CONCERT are the Varsity Singers.

Music, music, music . . . Maybee Holl resounds with it. Vocal music groups include the University Choir and the University Singers and the smaller groups, Madrigal and Varsity Singers.

In the fall, the University Choir puts on a series of twelve concerts, traveling to area high schools to perform the music which they will sing in the high school vocal festival. At Christmas time, the group combines with the University Singers, the glee clubs and the University Orchestra to put on the annual Christmos concert in the field house. Along with the orchestra, the choir performed James Rogers' "Mon of Nazareth" for the Easter seoson . . . and later in the spring, the group presented Haydn's "The Creation."

Dr. Elwyn Carter is director, with Robert Murphy os ossistant director. Jean LaBranche is president of the group and Marilyn Pumfery, secretary-treasurer.

VOCAL GROUP, UNIVERSITY Singers, is under the direction of Mrs. Dorothea Sage Snyder.

UNIVERSITY CHOIR, UNDER direction of Dr. Elwyn Carter, presents multitude of concerts during the school year. In addition, the choir sent a number of its members to the Music Educators National Convention in Chicago. The group, which has approximately 80 members, meets Monday and Wednesday afternoons in Maybee Hall.

Religious Council

Acting as an information exchange for all religious organizations on campus, the religious council is a coordinating organization as well as one of service. Holiday chapel services at Thanksgiving time, Christmas and Easter are held just before vacation to give the students a chance to gather for devotional purposes. Another very important function is the provision of the university bus for transportation to the downtown church services.

Adele Schenk is president; Shirley Grossman, vice-president; Mary Terwilliger, secretary; and Pat Schofield, treasurer. Dr. Alan Brown, dean of the chapel, is the advisor.

Hillel

Far the first time, the members of Hillel, Jewish group on campus, entered the homecoming house display. Other social highlights of their year included bowling, pizza parties, trips to Echo Valley and buffet suppers at private homes.

The organization also goes to temple on Friday night as a group and participates in religious panels and meetings with other religious organizations.

Shirley Grossman heads the 15 members, assisted by Laurence Berman, vice-president; Willa Yaffe, secretary; and Patti Paul, treasurer. Dr. Julius Stulberg and Rabbi Arthur Hallander are sponsors.

Campus Christian Fellowship

Even before schaol starts in the fall, the Campus Christian Fellowship has begun its year's activities. On Labor Day weekend, the group goes to the Lacota Child Care Migrant Center in Lacota to fix up the center for the opening of the migrant season.

During the year, the group meets monthly on Sunday evenings for a program and supper meeting in the chapel. In addition, the members get together in study groups and at faculty homes for faculty "firesides." At these firesides, the faculty host leads the discussion by relating his academic area to religion. Other activities of the organization are fall and winter study retreats and a spring planning retreat.

Ken Noble, president, has been assisted by Doris Bilz, vice-president; Sybil Wilson, secretary; Jo Ann Moon, treasurer; and the Rev. George Crandall, the Rev. Minoru Mochizuki and the Rev. Ian Brown, sponsors.

Wesley Foundation, the organization of Methodist preference students, has been a group on the move. Events long to be remembered were: the worship and planning retreats at Rota-Kiwan with the Ellingers, Mr. Howard Chenery and the Rev. Theodore Bennink; the alumni dinner with Dr. Albert Becker as speaker; and the church night supper as guests of First Methodist.

Innovations included: participation in a 9:30 Sunday morning worship service with music by the Wesley Foundation choir, followed by 10:30 a. m. college classes in Bible; Great Religious Leaders; and Christianity and Social Problems.

RECREATION PLAYS AN important role at Wesley meetings.

EVENING VESPERS SET spiritual tone for group.

Wesley Foundation

Harold Kinney, district superintendent, and Chuck Cooley, Methodist campus minister, continued to meet regularly with a growing group of Methodist pre-ministerial students.

Deputations to area churches, Christmas and Lenten Matins, Vesper services, regianal and state MSM conferences and busy days in Sigma Theta and Kappa Phi — all helped to make 1958-59 a great year . . . and how about that Wesley Choir tour during Holy Week — a time never to be forgotten.

Add the public relations council work on posters and ROUND-UP and the social council's promotion of parties, fellowship suppers, church league basketball and Friday pop-ins and it's been a year hard to beat.

MORE WESLEY MEMBERS include: ROW 1, Robert Murray, Narene Werden, Linda Tompkins, David Brauwer, Elaine McKeel, Ruthann Schnurr, Jan Garrison; ROW 2, Sharon Grube, Tanya Ellis, Barbora Church, Melvin Bricker, JoAnn Gerardo, Ann Marie Alexander, Ellen Black, Jerry Young, Leroy Sheline, Karen Holmes, Fred Gauld; ROW 3, Wayne Hagadone, Carol Spear, Shirley McClain, Pat Pinkstan, Mary Law, Doris Stegenga, Richard Matthews, Julia Panse, Tim Margan; ROW 4, Janet McLaughlin, the Rev. Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

Do you ever wonder about "Science ond Christianity," "The Nature of Christianity," and "Is Jesus Christ a Reolity"? These questions are typical of those discussed by the members of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. Following evening lectures, members gother for a coffee hour in the chapel social room.

Never at a loss for activities, the group gets together about once every two weeks for such things as a Christmas banquet, a hayride, a picnic, a skating party or a gym night at the Women's Gym.

Leading this group are David Twiest, president; Carolyn Raymond, vice-president; Gordon Grinwis, corresponding secretary; Sharon Robinson, recording secretary; David Sunde, treasurer; and Dr. Herbert Hannon and Dr. Elaine Zimmerman, sponsors.

'WINTER FANTASY' BROUGHT to the Student Center ballroom this delicately constructed sleigh, sparkling snawflakes.

Distinguished as the second largest organization on campus is the Inter-Residence Halls Association. Each of the 11 residence halls sends its vice-president and two representatives to the council, which meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Meetings are rotated from dom to dorm.

The group devotes its energy to a multitude of activities . . . some social, and some philanthropic.

RHA MEMBERS discuss issues informally at meeting.

Inter-Residence Halls Association

Activities of the organization begin in the very eorly fall with a freshman open air dance — this year, held inside because of the rain. From that point, the members channel their efforts toward co-ordinated mixers in the various dorms and to the "Winter Fantasy," Christmas formal. Other social activities include bowling and ping pong tournaments and the Residence Halls presidents' banquet. In the line of philanthropy, the association is active in the Red Cross blood drive.

Curt Shaneour, president for the past year, has been assisted by Harold Ball, vice-president; Barbara Tallerday, recording secretary; Carol Heym, corresponding secretary; Jack Krueger, treasurer; Kay Higbee, publicity; Mrs. Homer Cox, Dr. Paul Maier and Mr. Tom Rowley, sponsors.

PICNIC FINDS THE Hefner family enjoying the lawn behind Ernest Burnham hall.

From the lighted candles of a birthday dinner to cheering for the victory bell at football games, Ernest Burnham displays its unity.

Ernest Burnham's unity is expressed, too, through exchange dinners; a homecoming coffee for residents, graduates and guests; pojomo parties; a secret "buddy" system at Christmas; and a dorm formal with Smith Burnham. June brings a special dinner for graduates, with recognition given to the dorm's outstonding seniors.

Ernest and Smith Burnham halls cooperate in hosting o Christmas party for underprivileged children. The youngsters' smiles of happiness are enough reward for the dorm residents.

Marge Nacke has served as president of the dorm. Other officers for the year were: Stella Stone, first vice-president; Maureen Rankin, second vice-president; Linda Lytle, secretary; and Andree Koeppel, treasurer. Director and assistant director are Mrs. Harry Hefner and Miss Barbara Gaylor.

JOINT PROJECTS include Burnhom inter-dorm choir.

Sharing the some roof with Ernest Burnham women are the men of Smith Burnham. This is the second year that Western's only "coed" dormitory has been in operation.

Last year, a joint council — consisting of members of both dorms — was formed to map out a social calendar. The two groups cooperated to build a float and house display this fall . . . and co-sponsored the "Festival of Knights" dance. The men of Smith Burnham have also participated in the intramural sports.

Jack Fox serves as president of the group, aided by Fran Mellinger, vice-president; Fred Sitkins, recording secretary; Jerry Morrison, corresponding secretary; and John Schmid, treasurer. Dorm directors are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Potter.

Vandercook Hall

Out of Western's 11 dormitories, Vandercook Hall is unique in the fact that it is the only one without eating facilities . . . except for a snack bar.

The 210 members of the east campus dormitory concentrate their efforts during the year on the Teepee Tango, a closed semi-formal dance; on the homecoming house display; and on a series of "smokers."

President of the group for this year is Dick Vander Veen. Other officers include John Steffen, vice-president; and Boyd Pastoor, secretary - treasurer. Dorm directors are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bowers, Mr. Charles Storring and Mr. Ed Birch.

VANDERCOOK RESIDENTS take time out for a chat.

COKES AND POTATO chips are just the thing to help a discussion along for men of Vandercook.

'MMM . . . ALMOST LIKE homecooked food,' say these men from Walwood Hall, as they sit down to dinner.

"He Stopped the Water and We Can Stop Toledo" provided the theme for Walwood Hall's homecoming display. It featured a boy on a dike in Rotterdam . . . and, though the prediction did not come true, the display was morale-building.

Authenticity wos lent to the Hawaiian-type social held with Spindler in the Walwood Union, for orchids and other flowers were flown in from that island for the November occasion.

Other activities of the group included a Christmos party; an exchange dinner with Spindler in early March; and participation in intra-mural sports.

John Kruger served as president, assisted by Ken Nokakuro, vice-president; and David Roossinck, treasurer. Mr. James Boynton was director and Mr. Robert Wathen, assistant director.

Inter-Fraternity Council

The governing body of Western's ten social fraternities is the Inter-Fraternity Council. It is composed of the president and two representatives from each social fraternity. IFC policies provide the fraternities with housing regulations, rushing and pledging procedures, and intramural sports programs. The co-sponsorship of Greek Week is also one of the important functions of the group. Adding to the many activities, Western's IFC was host to the Michigon Inter-Fraternity Council convention in February.

Heading IFC the first semester was Bill Gocha. Dick Jones became president the second semester with Nick Nicoloff, vice-president; Ken Kaminski, secretary; and Charles Mitchell, treasurer. The sponsors were Mr. Marvin DeBoer, Dr. Jack Asher and the Rev. Herman Nelson.

PLANNING IFC ACTIVITIES are Ken Kaminski, Nick Nicaloff, Dick Janes, Bill Gocha, Charles Mitchell.

By working together as a team on such activities as homecoming, snow carnival and Greek Week, the men of Delta Chi have had the opportunity to show what close cooperation and team work can do. The Delta Chi Christmas Ball, a social highlight of the year, was made even a bigger success this year by bringing in the fabulous Louie Armstrong and his All-Stars.

Participating in such activities as skit night, vorious carnivals, the Boy's Club civic projects, the Red Cross drive and the Muscular Dystrophy drive, Delta Chi re-emphasized its value to the university and the community. The pledge banquets, parties, serenades and sports activities occupied the majority of the remaining time for Delta Chi members.

The successful year was led by Thomas Kidder, president; James Zimmerman, vice-president; Fred Ladebauche, secretary; and Ron Carmichael, treasurer. Mr. Ray Janes and Mr. Richard Swinsick were the sponsors of Delta Chi.

They said it couldn't be done! But the men of Delta Upsilon, the oldest fraternity on Western's campus, can do anything. Sponsored by the DU's was the annual Variety Night in December for all Greek organizations. One of the outstanding contributions is the annual "Sweetheart Ball," held in February.

The DU's provide fun for everyone, including the neighborhood children. At Hallowe'en they held a party for all of these children.

The chapter officers for the past year were: Robert Disbolis, president; Martin Ruiter, vice-president; Ross Stancati, treasurer; Bob Slezak, corresponding secretary; and George Foertsch, recording secretary. Dr. Lea Vander Beek and Mr. Charles Helgesen were the sponsors.

Western's campus will soon have a new national fraternity. Phi Alpha Colony is scheduled to become a chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, national social fraternity, on October 9, 1959. The Phi Alpha's have accomplished many feats during their two-year existence on campus.

IT'S TIME OUT for a bit of social life, as the Phi Alpha members entertain at one of their parties.

The activities of the fall carnival, homecoming, snow carnival, Variety Night and Greek Week have kept the Phi Alpha members on a continuous pace throughout the year. Dances and parties also provided them with social life. Numerous service projects were included in the Phi Alpha schedule. Among these were participation in the cancer drive, blood drive and collecting food and clothing for needy families.

Assisting Robert Warren as president were: Brad Tisdale, vice-president; David Osmun, secretary; Boyd O'Connell, corresponding secretary; and Hal Weakley, treasurer. Dr. Nicholas Hamner was the sponsor.

The group as a whole has hardly stopped for breath since homecoming time. Among its activities are: participation in intramural sports; pledge banquets; sorority parties; a "gangster" party; a Christmas party for orphans; building a snow sculpture; and holding a closed dance, "Ides of March."

Robert Cannell has led the 60 members the past year, with assistance from Clem Nicoloff, vice-president; Harry Rosa, secretary; Howard Heinitz, treasurer; and Larry Harp, pledge trainer.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

IT'S NOT ALL WORK for the TKE's. Picnic provides chance for relaxation and socializing.

Theta Xi started off the year by purchasing a new fraternity house, located at 1102 West Main. The mansion, formerly owned by Dr. Stone, can house 33 men.

Capturing the intramural football championship was the highlight of the fall semester for the Theta Xi's. Social events for the men included: the dad's day program in the fall; an open house for students, faculty and the public; and the annual Christmas party.

Ric Mitzel served as president for the first semester, assisted by Vern Brown, vice-president; Dick Kienbaum, corresponding secretary; and Wally Kearns, treasurer. Second semester found Dick and Wally as president and vice-president; Jerry Winters, corresponding secretary; and Dick VanderVeen, treasurer. Mr. John McNally and Mr. Eugene Kirchherr were sponsors.

Sigma Tau Gamma

From the "Autumn Moonlight" all-campus dance in the fall to their own "White Rose" closed dance in the spring, the Sigma Tau Gamma's lead busy lives. Their activities began with a homecoming coffee for alumni of the group. From then until June, they had a hayride for members and their dates; participated in the Snow Carnival with a booth having an "Adventureland" theme; and went to Gourdneck Lake in the spring for a beach party and barbecue.

In addition to having good times themselves, they make sure that others do not go unnoticed, for every year, they hold a Christmas party for underprivileged children.

Leading the Sig Tau's, who also hold third place among fraternities for scholarship, are: William McNabb, president; Bob DuBois, vice-president; Jerry Newman, secretary; and Don Whalen, treasurer.

Kappa Alpha Psi

"Small but mighty" might be the slogan of the Kappa Alpha Psi's. Although only nine members strong, the fraternity has participated in many campus activities. They took second place in intramural basketball; third in last year's Greek Week track meet; and third in last year's Greek Week skit night. They also helped in the cancer fund-raising drive.

Kappo Alpha Psi held its annual dance this year in January. Marking the group's tenth anniversary, they celebrated the occasion last year with a dinner-dance. Many of the past members of the chapter returned to take part in the activities.

Officers are: Herbert Cheesman, president; Amos Cafield, vice-president; Clarence Cheathom, secretary; and Paul Hendricks, treasurer. Mr. Duane Roberts and Mrs. James Caldwell ore sponsors.

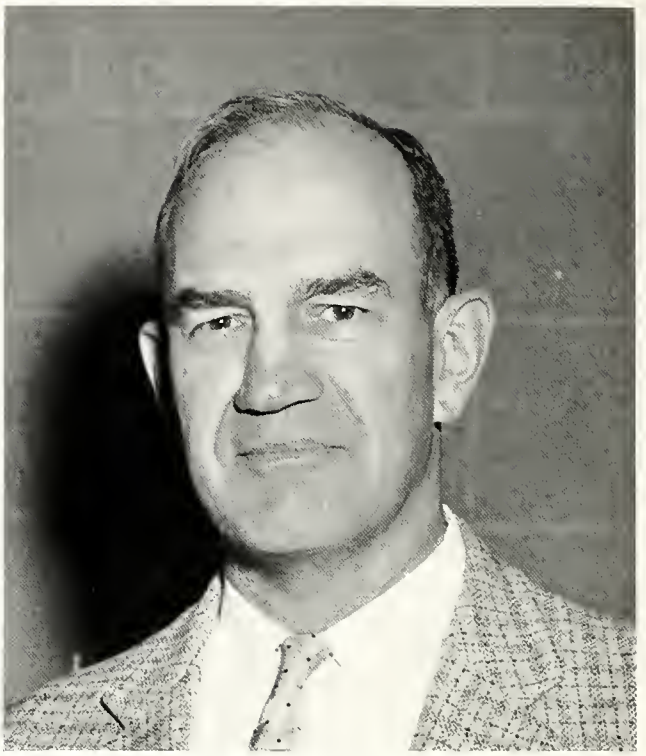

Competition, Participation Form Nucleus of Athletics

Sports is the spirit of keen competition, active participation. A touchdown, a field goal, the sound of running feet — amid a bedlam of cheers — spork our days.

Athletic Board

The Athletic Board of Control acts as the guiding hand behind Western Michigan University athletic program policies. Falling under the jurisdiction of the ten board members are rules and regulations governing awards, game schedules, and the eligibility of students concerned with inter - collegiate sports. The board is composed of administration and faculty members, president of the 'W' Club, and the Western Herald sports editor.

MITCHELL J. 'MIKE' Gary, director af athletics for Western, is at the arganizatianal helm of the Fieldhouse.

MEMBERS OF THE Athletic Baard are: ROW 1, Mitchell J. Gary, C. B. MacDonald, chairman, Jahn W. Gill, Robert Trader; ROW 2, Lyle McAuley, Dr. William Weber, Albert Becker. Missing are Gary Harden, Dr. L. Dale Faunce, Claytan Maus.

Varsity Football

Branca football fortunes continue to rise under the tutelege of Coach Merle J. Schlosser. Western's gridders posted their best league record since 1954 with a four win, five loss mark this fall. In the rugged Mid-American Conference, Western tied with Ohio University for fourth ploce. Season highlights included a pair of upset victories over highly-regarded Marshall and Ohio. Coach Schlasser's football rebuilding campaign should begin to reap dividends next fall, for he will have twenty returning lettermen, plus several good candidates from this years undefeated freshman squad . . . with at least one veteran at each position.

A DIVING THRUST by a Bronco defender sends a Western Reserve back sprawling toward the turf.

HALFBACK LLOYD SWELNIS rumbles thraugh the Central Michigon line as a linebacker maves in an the Bronca gridder after his teammate has missed a diving tackle.

Returning next fall as a senior, fullback Lovell Coleman — this season's top performer — will be the mainstay in Coach Schlosser's veteran team. Coleman shattered three Western records, was named to the Williamson All-American team, and given honorable mention by the UPI.

Coleman started to snap records in the first game with Central Michigan. The Hamtramck junior alone outgained the Chippewas total offense with 282 yards, cracking a WMU single game rushing mark. Other statistics showed a total of 94 points scored on 15 touchdowns and two extra points. On the ground, Coleman gained 1,068 yards at an average clip of 6.02 per try.

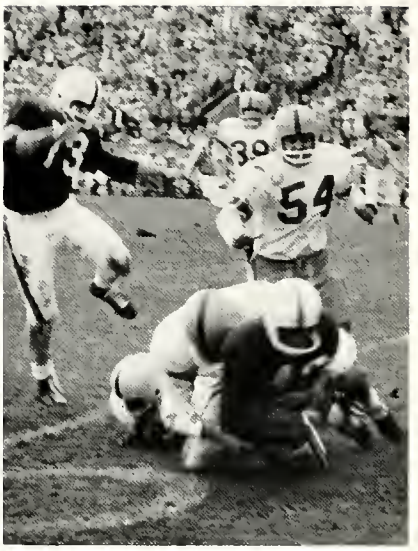

On punt and kickoff returns, Coleman was well noted for his long gallaping runs — including one that was good for 100 yards. In scoring, rushing and kickoff returns, he was one of the nation's leaders.

CRACKING THROUGH THE defensive line, fullback Lovell Coleman scampers for needed yardage.

TRYING HIS BEST to elude the outstretched arms of a Chippewa tackler is Lloyd Swelnis.

Western had its share of heartbreakers, too. In the opening contest against inter-state rival, Central Michigan, the Broncos lost by one point, 33 to 32, when a run for the extra point in the closing minutes failed to materialize. Homecoming festivities were shadowed by the upset loss to Toledo. After Western had led by one touchdown for three quarters, and with Coleman out of action with a bruised hip, the Rockets rallied for three TD's to win.

DESPITE THE EFFORTS of an Ohio pass defender, Bill Taft latches onto an aerial in the end zone for a Western TD.

Lost through graduotion ore Bill Watkinson, Bill Taft, Jack Krueger, Jim Eger, Paul Schutter, Roger Avers, and Charlie Karpinski. Also not returning is Joe Grigg, a letterwinner for two seosons. The top poss receiver suffered on injury in the season opener, and wos sidelined through the remainder of the schedule. These gridders will be sorely missed.

Varsity Basketball

Plagued by injuries, the lack of depth, and an unbalanced scoring attack, the 1958-59 version of Western's basketball team marked a dismal 2-20 season record. Knee injuries to Keith Sterk and Jack Grimes, benching the cagers for most of the schedule, hurt the Broncos in the scoring and height departments. And six-ten Bob Baltan didn't make his court appearance until eligibility in the second semester. Coach Don Boven's Broncos were a determined unit, however. Against Bowling Green, eventual MAC representative to the NCAA tournoment, Western was nipped by only four points on a late Falcon rally. In the season finale, highly-touted Marquette arrived at Western with a 23-4 record and were nearly upset. The Broncos, until the closing minutes, were only a few points behind.

Varsity Baseball

For the seventh time since Western's entry into the Mid-American Conference in 1948, Coach Charles Maher's Broncas have won the coveted baseball title. In over-all season competition last spring, Western notched a 23 win, eight loss, one tie mark and sported a 10-0 record in the league. The diamondmen won the NCAA District 4 tourney, and placed third in the Collegiate World Series at Omaha, Nebraska. Jack Rumahr, Bob Masan, Dick Sosnowski and Marv Winegar weere selected an the MAC first team, with Len Grabowski getting second string honors. Winegar, who hit .395 at Omaha, was named to the all-tournament squad. Masan led the team in the batting department with a .333 season average. Western's cross country team rewrote the university's sports records with a spectacular and near-perfect season. The Bronco harriers were unbeaten in regular season competition, captured three conference championships — Michigan AAU, Mid-American and Central Collegiate — but finished second in the NCAA meet. Coach George Dales' runners, ironically enough, lost to Michigan State in the NCAA run after previously handing the Spartans their only two losses of the season. Outstanding distance stars for Western were Art Eversole and Jerry Ashmore, both of whom were cited as two of the country's top runners. Next fall might see the harriers have their perfect season as all nine lettermen should return.

Varsity Tennis

Coach Ray Sorensen's fine tennis teams continue their reign over Mid-American Conference opponents by winning their seventh conference championship last season. It wos the fifth consecutive title for the Bronco netters. In the league finale, former all-stater John Cook captured the individual crown and became the first sophomore ever to accomplish this feat. In the doubles competition, Cook teamed up with captain Larry Yoder to win the number one flight. The final tally gave Western 17 points, while Toledo placed second with only six. In regular season motches, the Broncos posted o 9-4 mark.

Varsity Wrestling

In its second year of competition, Western's wrestling team, under the guidance of Coach Roy Wietz, posted an impressive seven win, one loss record. It marked a definite improvement over last season's 1-4-1 rating. In the Mid-American Conference, the grapplers placed a surprising third, scoring 39 points to Kent State's 59, and Bowling Green's 71. Bill Karpinski and Bill Forrester placed second in the league matches, while teammates Larry Wright and Richard Cook were third and Frank Gualandi and Dick Olmsted were fourth in each grappler's respective weight division. Consistent winners in dual matches this season were Karpinski with an 8-0 mark, Forrester, 5-0, and Gualandi, 4-1-1. At the 4-1 Eastern Wrestling Invitational Championships, Forrester brought home the school's first wrestling trophy by winning the 177 pound division.

GETTING IN SHAPE for the next motch, Bob Ericksan practices a hold on his teammate, John Warden.

Varsity Swimming

Coach Ed Gabel's Bronco swimming team, in its third year of active league participation, compiled a season mark of five wins and six defeats. Western placed fourth in both the Mid-American Conference relays and championships. Bowling Green won the MAC title with a 105 point total followed by Miami's 101½, Ohio's 89 and Western's 51½. Individual standouts for the year included Tom Patterson, who swam in the 440 and 220 yard race events. Patterson recorded 13 first places, and seven seconds. Roy Moyer won the 50 yard event 10 times, and lost only to Tom Burns of Ohio University. Two new pool records in the 100 and 200 yard backstroke were set by Jerry Misner, and Tom Meisel broke the 200 yard breaststroke mark. Mid-semester graduation lost the services of ace diver Jerry Beckner — undefeated in three years of duol competition.

RACING TOWARDS THE finish line and first place in the 220 yard event is Bronco swimmer Tom Patterson.

WARMING UP FOR the coming season, Alex Forrester proctices with his irons in the fieldhouse.

Varsity Golf

Western's golf team chalked up its best won-lost record in eleven years last spring with 17 victories, and only four defeats. And at one point during the season, the Broncos collected a string of 10 wins before bowing to Detroit. In the annual Mid-American tournament, Coach Roy Wietz's players finished a strong second to Ohio. It marked the Broncos' best effort since they captured the crown in 1949. Two players were selected on the initial coaches all-conference team. Tom Arch was placed on the first squad, while teammate Robert Goldsmith was accorded a position on the second unit.

'W' Club

'W' Club members keep busy the year around. Basketball season finds them publishing and selling programs and engaging in a basketball game against the faculty. During baseball seasan, the letterholders are in charge of cancessians at all of the home games. During the rest of the year, they publish an alumni newsletter, a report of each intercallegiate sport team sent to former 'W' Club members. They alsa enter teams in the intramural sports.

Social highlight of the year is a spring dinner dance, held to recognize seniar members.

The 43 members elected Lyle McAuley their president far the past year; and Jim Eger, vice-president; Roger Avers, recarding secretary; Bill Pawell, corresponding secretary; Charles Lynch, treasurer; and Jack Krueger and Charles Mitchell, seargeants-at-arms. Dr. Donald Edwards and Mr. Robert Trader are spansors.

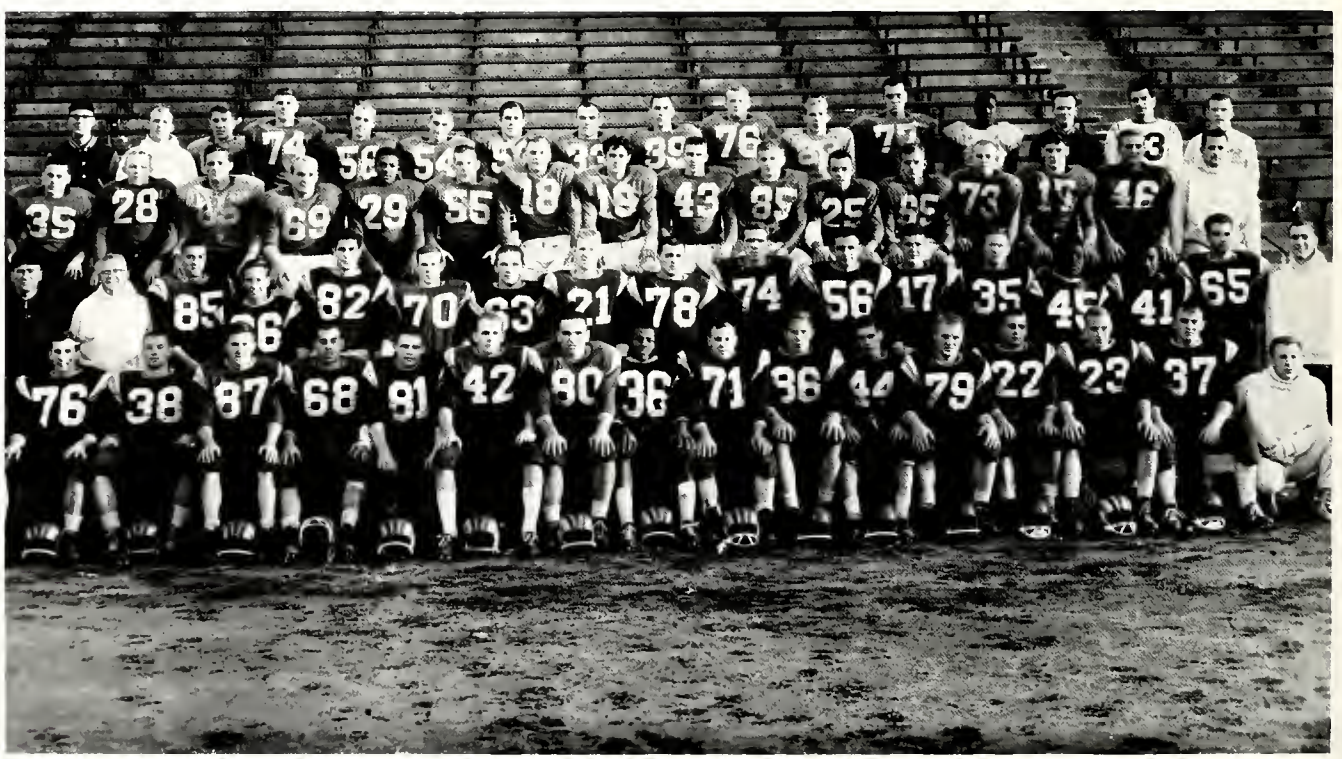

Frosh Sports

Western's freshman football team won all four of its contests last fall, defeating Toledo's frosh, Central Michigan JV, Bowling Green freshmen and the Varsity Reserves. Coaches Fred Stevens and Tom Slaughter cited the team's speed, maneuverability and willingness to make contact as the outstanding features of this year's squad. Many of the gridders displayed solid potential, and should be an aid to next fall's varsity unit. Elected team co-captains at the end of the season were Ray Larned and Ed Chlebek.

Frosh Baseball

Coach Fred Stevens' freshman baseball team, aided by outstanding pitching and good hitting, marked a five and two won-loss record last year — both defeats at the hands of Aquinas. In the batting department, Phillip Martinez and Frank Quilici topped the frosh with averages of .519 and .481 respectively. Other solid hitters included Roger Flath and Allen Erickson. Top hurlers during the season were Jim Bouton, Bill Ortlieb and Bob Hamet. These players, plus other team members, soundly grilled in the fundamentals by Coach Stevens, should be strong additions to the varsity squad.

'FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT,' urge vorsity cheerleaders Ginny Kerber, Ann Keil, Sandy Judson, Cherry Hyslop, Alta Harrisan, Judy Sweeney.

Cheerleaders

RESERVES: Phyllis Queen, Penny Francis.

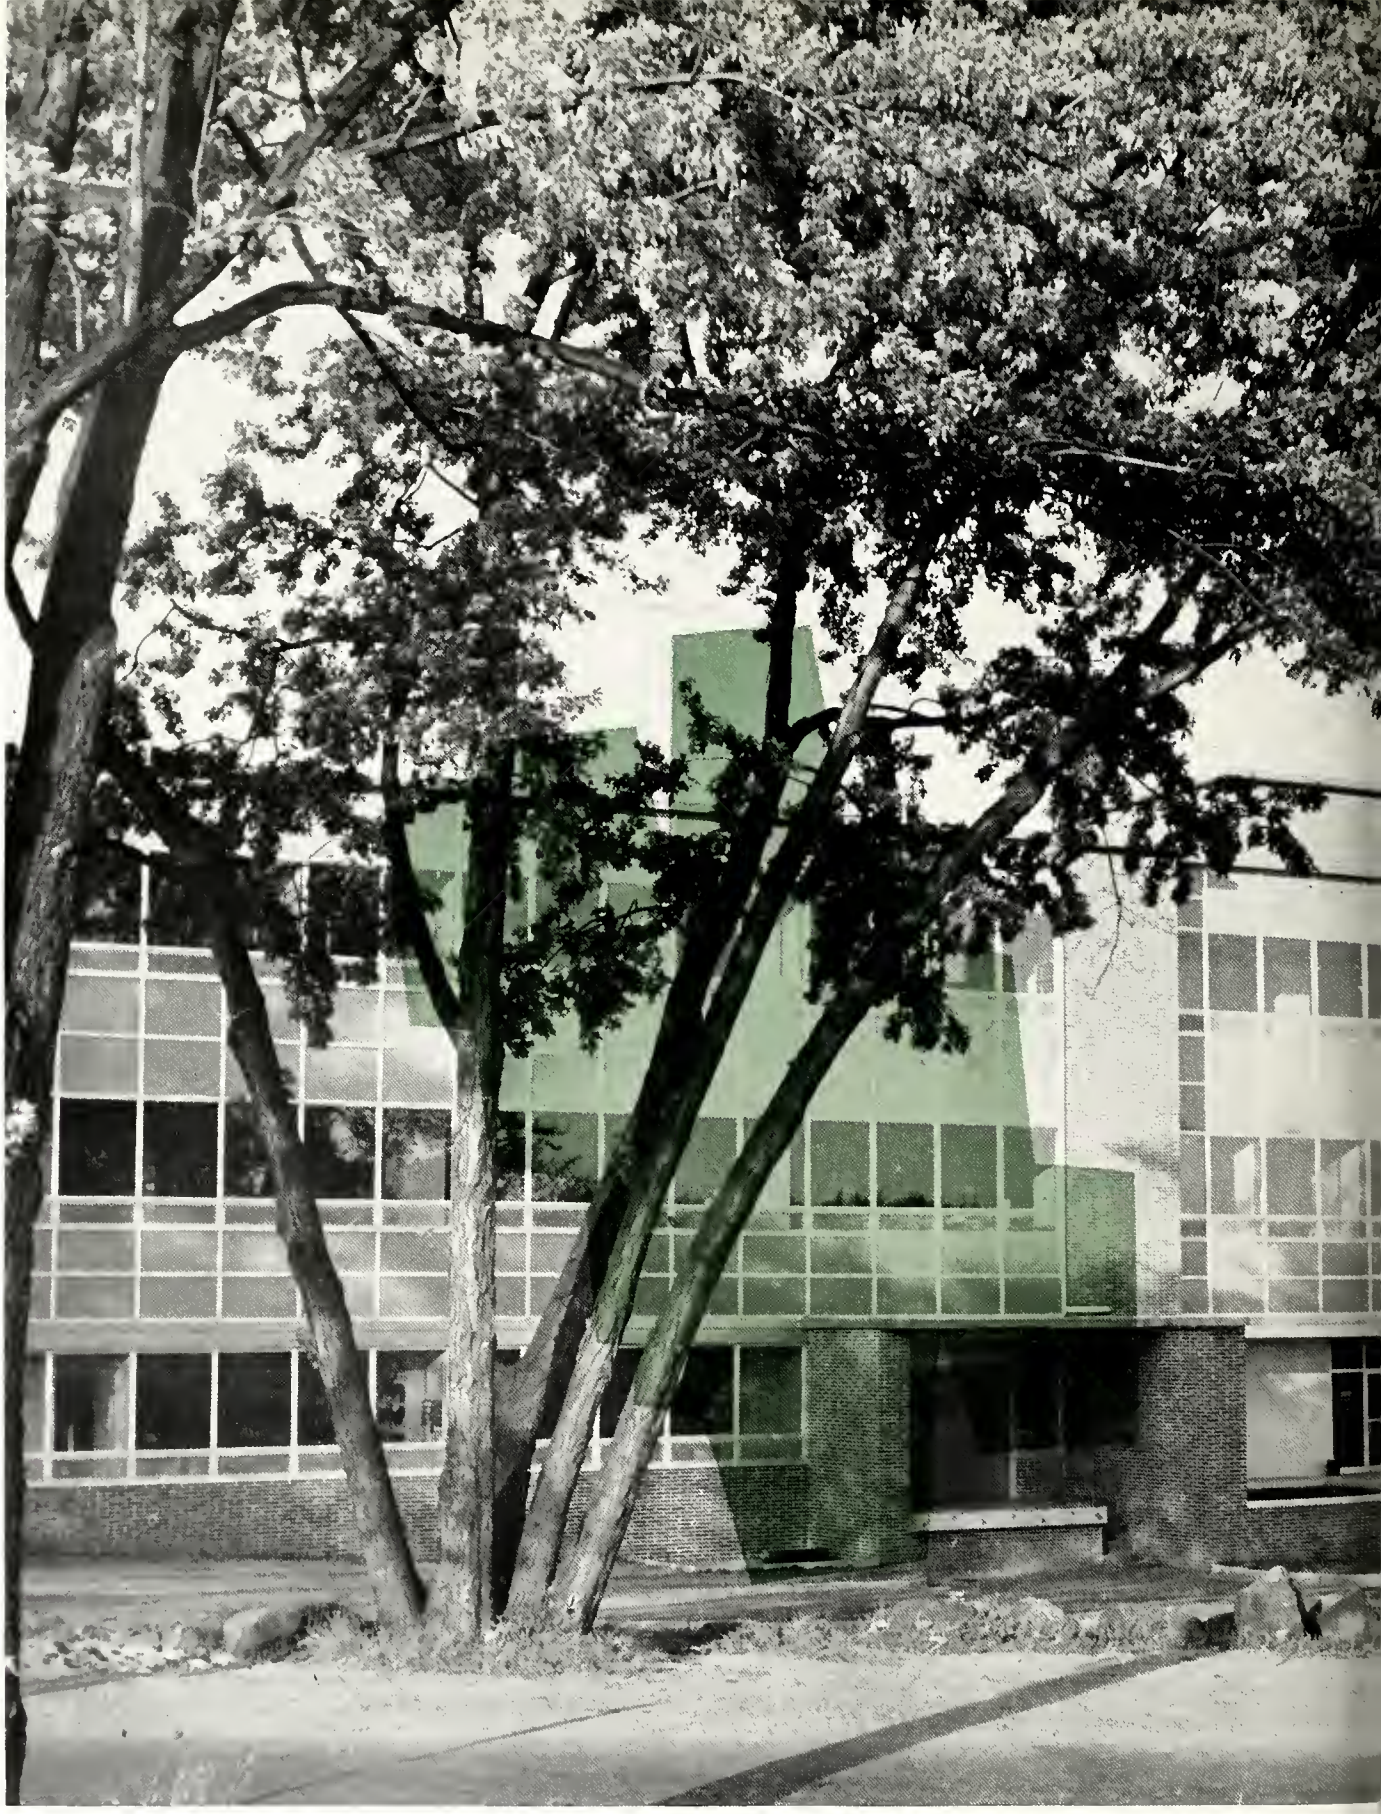

Doing their best to cheer the Bronco teams on to victory throughout the year are the eight peppy cheerleaders pictured here. All that they ask in return for their work is plenty of cheering . . . and from the looks of the gal on the facing page, these cheerleaders got results! Captain this year has been Sandy Judson. Other varsity members are Ann Keil, Ginny Kerber, Alta Harrison, Cherry Hyslop and Judy Sweeney. Taking the place of the regulars every now and then have been the alternates, Penny Francis and Phyllis Queen. Mr. Robert Trader is sponsor for the group.

— PHOTOS BY KEN ROBITAILLE

Watching a game — whether your side wins or not — can be an exciting experience. Pretty Jane Krieger, pictured on this page, is giving as much help to the team as she possibly can. She cheers . . . holds her breath . . . roots for her team again . . . becomes tense with excitement . . . and, finally — relaxes to enjoy the rest of the game.

Four Years? 'Whizzes By,' Say Seniors; Frosh Wonder . . .

Four years stretched out ahead of you can seem like an eternity, but to the seniors just emerging from a college career —
"Why, it was nothing at all! It went so fast."

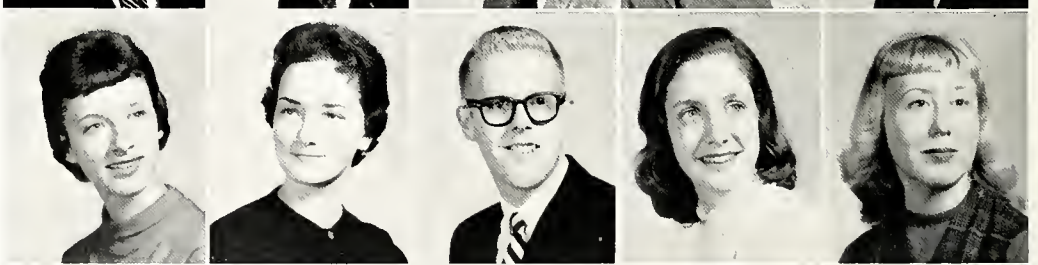

LEADING THE SENIORS ore: Charles Mitchell, Clem Nicoloff, Bob Middleton, Mr. Robert Palmatier, Roberta Swanson.

For the graduating seniors, it's the end of an important period in their lives: life at Western. In their four years here, they've seen Western become a university; they've seen the addition of new buildings, until their "freshman campus" has become truly a thing of the past. They've been an important part of the university for four years . . . and, in a few weeks, they will take the final step, crossing the platform to receive their diplomas.

Juniors are in that stage when they're glad they're not freshmen or sophomores, but when they wish very much that they were seniors and were graduating, too. Somtimes they feel that their college career is flitting by much too soon . . . and, then again, there are those days when it seems to drag by, when nathing at all seems to go right. Next year, they'll be the ones who will be going to that last dance, having that last party, taking that lost coffee break . . . before graduation.

JUNIOR OFFICERS TAKE time out to bowl a game: Tom Padden, Frank Fisher, Mitzi Smith, Bill Martin.

PERSHING RIFLES TOOK o first for snow sculpture of o dragon and castle.

Sophomores are more than used to college now, after being here for almost two years . . . and freshmen are still enjoying the newness of it all. Both groups can probably still remember those first few days of wonder . . . and can recall how quickly they were able to establish friendships. Sophomore officers are: Fred Zook, president; Clifford Bee, vice-president; and Marge Ellis, secretary. At the helm of the freshman class are: Gordie Blush, president; Tom Bigelow, vice-president; Sue Steffe, secretary; and Linda Dalrymple, treasurer.

THEY HEAD SOPH and freshman classes: Sue Steffe, Marge Ellis, Linda Dalrymple, Tom Bigelow, Clifford Bee, Fred Zook, Gordie Blush.

To Our Advertisers--
Thank You!

Without our many advertisers, this yearbook would not have been possible. Therefore, we wish to extend our thanks to each one of them.

Compliments of
The Senior Class

LOOKING OVER SOME of the records which the Senior Class gave os a gift to the University Student Center music-listening room are the officers: Charles Mitchell, Clem Nicoloff, Roberta Swonson, Bob Middleton, Barbara Budny, Ron Miller.

Juniors!

Sophomores!

Freshmen!

With class spirit, our classes could accomplish many projects.

If class unity interests you,

too, plan to talk with

elsewhere in this book.

Paper makes the picture

For pictures that are sharp and clear you need a clean, bright paper.

You've already seen the clarity and sparkle and appeal of the pictures in this book. In later years, as you thumb through the pages recalling friends and fun at Western, you will be glad your Brown & Gold staff made such a good selection of paper.

This is the fine 80 lb. Peacock Enamel made by ALLIED PAPER CORPORATION in its Kalamazoo mills. It was supplied by BERMINGHAM & PROSSER COMPANY, paper merchants.

Should your post-college work have anything to do with the graphic arts keep these two firms in mind.

The needs of the twentieth century will not be served by reducing everyone to a dead level of mediocrity This century calls for the finest and the most skillful leadership which free men can produce. — Willis F. Dunbar Milk, in itself, is inherently good . . . but its very goodness makes it extremely sensitive to carelessness and indifference. Supreme goodness of milk demands extra care: born in the modern dairy laboratory, nurtured by the application of scientific methods to production, processing and packaging. Only extra care can instill in dairy products a full measure of health, well-being and peace of mind.
